

The Finance Council meeting scheduled for March 17, 2020 was cancelled due to the shelter in place order from the governor to protect against the spread of COVID-19. The February financial reports were distributed to the council members and approved by email.