Prelude Music

You're All I Need

When the day is done, and there's no one else around, while I'm lying here in bed, you're in my heart, you're in my head, you're all I need, you're all I need.

There are a million voices, calling out my name, but you're the one I want to hear, so make the others disappear, you're all I need, you're all I need.

Refrain:

You are all I need when I'm surrounded, you are all I need if I'm by myself.

You fill me when I'm empty, there is nothing else, you are all I need.

When the morning comes and your mercy is renewed, there's a fire in my bones.

I'm not afraid to go alone, you're all I need, you're all I need. The sun on my face I hear you whisper loud. You're still the God that opens seas, every flower, even me. You're all I need, you're all I need.

I'm drawn to everything that you do. Nothing compares with you.

Gathering Song

I Could Sing of Your Love Forever

1. Over the mountains and the sea, your river runs with love for me and I will open up my heart and let the Healer set me free. I'm happy to be in the truth, and I will daily lift my hands for I will always sing of when your love came down.

Refrain: I could sing of your love forever. I could sing of your love forever.

I could sing of your love forever. I could sing of your love forever.

Bridge: Oh I feel like dancing, it's foolishness I know, but when the world has seen the light they will dance with joy like we're dancing now.

Opening Prayer

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Acts 2: 14, 22-33

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven,
raised his voice, and proclaimed:
“You who are Jews, indeed all of you staying in Jerusalem.
Let this be known to you, and listen to my words.
You who are Israelites, hear these words.
Jesus the Nazarene was a man commended to you by God
with mighty deeds, wonders, and signs,
which God worked through him in your midst,
as you yourselves know.
This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God,
you killed, using lawless men to crucify him.
But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death,
because it was impossible for him to be held by it.
For David says of him:
'I saw the Lord ever before me,
with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.
Therefore my heart has been glad and my tongue has exulted;
my flesh, too, will dwell in hope,
because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld,

nor will you suffer your holy one to see corruption.
You have made known to me the paths of life;
you will fill me with joy in your presence.’

“My brothers, one can confidently say to you about the patriarch David that he died and was buried,
and his tomb is in our midst to this day.
But since he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne,
he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ,
that neither was he abandoned to the netherworld
nor did his flesh see corruption.

God raised this Jesus;
of this we are all witnesses.
Exalted at the right hand of God,
he received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured him forth, as you see and hear.”

The word of the Lord. Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps. 86-Teach Me Your Way

Teach me your way O Lord and I will walk in your truth.
Give me an undivided heart.

Second Reading

1 Pt. 1: 17-21

A reading from the first letter of Peter

Beloved:
If you invoke as Father him who judges impartially
according to each one’s works, conduct yourselves with reverence
during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct,
handed on by your ancestors,
not with perishable things like silver or gold
but with the precious blood of Christ
as of a spotless unblemished lamb.

He was known before the foundation of the world
but revealed in the final time for you,
who through him believe in God
who raised him from the dead and gave him glory,
so that your faith and hope are in God.

The word of the Lord. Response: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Lk. 24: 13-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Response: Glory to you, O Lord

That very day, the first day of the week,
two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred.
And it happened that while they were conversing and debating,
Jesus himself drew near and walked with them,
but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him.
He asked them,
"What are you discussing as you walk along?"
They stopped, looking downcast.
One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply,
"Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?"
And he replied to them, "What sort of things?"
They said to him,
"The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene,
who was a prophet mighty in deed and word
before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him.
But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel;
and besides all this,
it is now the third day since this took place.
Some women from our group, however, have astounded us:
they were at the tomb early in the morning
and did not find his body;

they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive.
Then some of those with us went to the tomb
and found things just as the women had described,
but him they did not see.”
And he said to them, “Oh, how foolish you are!
How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke!
Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?”

Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets,
he interpreted to them what referred to him
in all the Scriptures.
As they approached the village to which they were going,
he gave the impression that he was going on farther.
But they urged him, “Stay with us,
for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over.”
So he went in to stay with them.
And it happened that, while he was with them at table,
he took bread, said the blessing,
broke it, and gave it to them.
With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him,
but he vanished from their sight.
Then they said to each other,
“Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?”
So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem
where they found gathered together
the eleven and those with them who were saying,
“The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!”
Then the two recounted
what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.
The Gospel of the Lord.

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord. Response: Praise to you, Lord, Jesus Christ.

Homily

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through Him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became Man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one holy, catholic and apostolic church.
I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Prayers of the Faithful

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Preparation of the Altar

Come Thou Font

Come thou fount of every blessing tune my heart to sing thy grace. Streams of mercy never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise. Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above. Praise his name I'm fixed upon it, name of God's redeeming love.

Hither to thy love has blest me, thou hast brought me to this place. And I know thy hand will bring me safely home by thy good grace. Jesus sought me when a stranger, wand'ring from the fold of God. He to rescue me from danger, bought me with his precious blood.

O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be! Let thy goodness like a fetter bind me wand'ring heart to thee. Prone to wander, Lord I feel it, prone to leave the God I love. Here's my heart O take and seal it. Seal it for thy courts above. Here's my heart O take and seal it. Seal it for thy courts above.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment

Lord, let your light, light of your face shine on us. Lord, let your light, light of your face shine on us that we may be saved, that we may have life; to find our way in the darkest night, let your light shine on us.

Lord, let your grace, grace from your hand fall on us. Lord, let your grace, grace from your hand fall on us that we may be saved, that we may have life; to find our way in the darkest night, let your grace fall on us.

Lord, let your love, love with no end come over us. Lord, let your love, love with no end come over us that we may be saved, that we may have life; to find our way in the darkest night, let your love come over us, let your light shine on us.
